

When is a time you saw people come together quickly? Did they do so by finding a common goal, a common enemy, or a common characteristic?

What are some assumptions you make about people in your group—your Us-es? How about your assumptions about Them-s?

What is something you would like to do differently, this week, based on what you learned in this chapter?

Play Outrage Word Bingo:

How many of these words do you use, or hear others use, when talking about political issues?

sick	lie	steal	mandate	failure
decay	bizarre	betray	destructive	urgent
shame	greed	BINGO!	destroy	traitors
disgrace	corrupt	abuse	endanger	threaten
waste	cheat	crisis	collapse	punish
